Division of International Education

THE INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL
in Innsbruck, Austria

July 2 - August 6, 2016
The University of New Orleans is proud to welcome you to the 41st session of The Innsbruck International Summer School. International study programs offer extraordinary educational opportunities as well as an introduction to the unique and enriching attributes of foreign cultures. As you participate in all of the many activities afforded by your host country, please remember that you are also serving as a cultural ambassador for your university and the United States. I hope that this summer will expand your worldview and cultivate a love for international travel. This program is a source of pride for the University of New Orleans, and I am certain that its benefits will be long-lasting. Welcome and enjoy your summer abroad!

Dr. John W. Nicklow, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, the University of New Orleans

Since 1976, the UNO-Innsbruck International Summer School has enabled almost 10,000 students to pursue their studies in Innsbruck, a city nestled in the towering Alps. From this capital in the heart of Europe our students have ventured out and travelled to many parts of the European continent. In the process they have immersed themselves in foreign cultures, encountered new people, and become global citizens. The Innsbruck International Summer School, a pioneer among American overseas summer programs, has been turning its students into citizens of the world for over forty years. UNO and the University of Innsbruck have long been active partners and have been granted the prestigious Euro-Atlantic Culture Award for International Education based on “their remarkable contribution to the scientific and cultural exchange between Europe and the USA.” This summer, the Innsbruck International Summer School has selected faculty from fine universities across the U.S. and Europe. Our classrooms will be enriched by the contributions of participating University of Innsbruck students. Join us in Innsbruck to learn and to enjoy the benefits of travel.

Dr. Robert Dupont, Academic Director, The UNO-Innsbruck International Summer School 2016

Welcome to UNO-Innsbruck! The continued success of the UNO-Innsbruck International Summer School represents a significant milestone and a proud achievement at the University of New Orleans. Over the last four decades, thousands of students, faculty and staff have become a part of the extended UNO-Innsbruck family. Perhaps your friends or a professor recommended it to you or, perhaps, your siblings have been and now it is your turn. Or, perhaps, you are one of the many legacy students who will choose UNO-Innsbruck because your mother or father attended this program in the early years. UNO-Innsbruck is widely known locally and abroad and has become an institution in its own right. I invite you to come with us and make your mark in Innsbruck!

ELIGIBILITY & ADMISSION
GUIDELINES for ALL STUDENTS

Undergraduates with a 2.5 GPA, graduate students with a 3.0 GPA, and non-degree seeking students are eligible to apply. New students seeking college credits must meet the general admissions requirements of The University of New Orleans. Guest students from other institutions and continuing University of New Orleans students must meet the grade point requirements above. Priority will be given to students enrolled in a university program. After review of all application materials, students will be notified in writing of acceptance into The International Summer School.

“How to Innsbruck! It will change your life!”
Kylie McMahon
Louisiana State University

HOW TO APPLY

Apply online: http://inst.uno.edu/austria/
Click on “Apply Here” to begin the application process. In addition to the online application, you must complete and submit all application materials, including a transcript, before your application can be reviewed for acceptance into the program. Course selection takes place at the time of application but cannot be guaranteed until the student is accepted.

“The field trips were amazing. The teachers were fantastic. I enjoyed the classes so much.”
Daniela Tejero
The University of New Orleans

COURSE SCHEDULING

- Course scheduling will be arranged based on a student’s eligibility first and preference list second. In the event of time conflicts or if class quotas of 15 per class have been reached, students will be assigned to course(s) on their alternate list.
- The International Summer School requires all students to complete at least 6 hours (2 courses) and allows enrollment in 9 hours (3 courses).

Fine Arts students practice their drawing techniques on a class field trip to Innsbruck’s Court Church.

GUIDELINES for UGA STUDENTS

University of Georgia students participating in The International Summer School must complete the UGA Study Abroad Credit Approval Form for UNO Innsbruck and submit it to the UGA Office of International Education (OIE) no later than 3 weeks prior to departure.

UGA students earn non-resident, transfer credit issued by The University of New Orleans, and grades earned on this program are calculated into the students’ overall GPA at UGA. Students should work with their Academic Advisor to complete and sign the Credit Approval Form and determine how the UNO Innsbruck classes will transfer and apply to specific UGA degree requirements or electives. UGA equivalents for courses offered in The International Summer School are listed in the UGA Credit Approval Form, which is available online.

Some courses have precise UGA transfer equivalents, while others may have a more general transfer designation such as HIST 3T, which indicates only the department and course level (in this case, a 3000 level History course). If needed, students may work directly with an academic advisor to determine a more precise course transfer equivalent. Students are advised to begin the Credit Approval Form process as soon as the decision to participate in the UNO Innsbruck program is made.

UGA students will be responsible for paying a $250 study abroad fee in addition to the program fee. The Credit Approval Form needs to be on file in the OIE in order to receive federal, state or institutional financial aid, including HOPE, Zell Miller, and other scholarships for studying abroad. UGA students are also eligible for the Ambassador Awards and can get more information about these in the OIE. UGA financial aid, such as the HOPE scholarship, is based on the number of credits students earn during the program and is calculated at the UGA tuition rate. Students can obtain a Credit Approval Form from the UGA Office of International Education or by accessing the UNO Innsbruck page on the GoAbroad Portal at goabroad.uga.edu.

“My highlights were the opportunity to travel, as well as being able to take major course classes.”
Austin Edquist
The University of Georgia

UGA students should contact the UGA Office of International Education to schedule an advising appointment with a Study Abroad Advisor if they have any questions about studying abroad, the credit transfer process, Credit Approval Form, scholarships, or financial aid.

CURRICULUM
In keeping with the purpose of The International Summer School, courses are enhanced by the setting in Austria and Europe. A concerted effort is made in all courses to reinforce the classroom instruction with the rich cultural surroundings. While all courses are taught in English, students are encouraged to take a German language course either before or during the summer for a better appreciation of the European experience.

EXAMS, TRANSCRIPTS & CERTIFICATES
• Mid-term and final examinations will be given in all courses. Class attendance is required of every student.
• An official transcript from The University of New Orleans will be sent to each student’s home institution at no extra cost.
• A special certificate will be awarded to students who complete nine hours with academic distinction (at least two A’s and one B).
• All students will also receive a certificate of attendance reflecting course grades.

“My greatest learning experience was being integrated into a classroom with local students. They served as insightful and inspiring figures to help us comprehend what being an European citizen is like.”
Carly High
The University of North Carolina

All courses listed will carry three credit hours, unless otherwise indicated. The academic regulations at The University of New Orleans will apply in Innsbruck as well. Freshmen and sophomores are eligible to enroll in courses numbered 1000 and 2000, and upperclassmen (over 59 hours of credit) may take any of these courses, as well as those numbered 3000 and 4000. 4000 level classes may have a 5000 level section added for graduate students upon request.

NOTE: Guest students are responsible for securing approval from their home institutions for the courses they wish to take.

UNIVERSITY OF INNSBRUCK
The Leopold-Franzens University of Innsbruck, founded in 1669 by Emperor Leopold I, is recognized today as a major European institution of higher learning and research. A long-standing formal Friendship Agreement with the University of Innsbruck affords UNO special access to the resources and faculty of this great European university. In turn, University of Innsbruck students participate in the UNO-Innsbruck Summer School, enriching class discussions with their central European perspectives. This peer-to-peer learning and intercultural exchange adds to the success of our program and significantly enhances the study experience for all students.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE
The University of New Orleans and The International Summer School strongly believe that the European educational experience should be made available to as many qualified students as possible. To this end, several awards are available to UNO and UGA students who exhibit high academic achievement, can clearly demonstrate financial need, and whose academic plans will benefit most from this experience. Recipients are designated as Ambassadors and are expected to assist during and after the program. For further information please contact The International Summer School office at UNO.

“Making new friends was my highlight of the program.”
Taylor Douglas
The University of Alabama

“Life is made in all courses to reinforce the classroom instruction with the rich cultural surroundings. While all courses are taught in English, students are encouraged to take a German language course either before or during the summer for a better appreciation of the European experience.”

“The glacier and silver mine field trips were a once in a lifetime experience.”
Jordan Larson
Tulane University
TRAVEL INFORMATION

Students may purchase their airline tickets on the group flight options arranged by ITS Tours (see below and program website), or they may opt to purchase their tickets independently. The program administration does not recommend purchasing an airline ticket before the student is accepted into The International Summer School program. Students will be informed in writing about their acceptance.

TRAVEL DATES

The International Summer School 2016 starts on Saturday, July 2 and ends on Saturday, August 6. To arrive on July 2, you must depart the U.S. on July 1 (overnight flight). All students must check into the dormitory by late afternoon on July 2, in time for the mandatory orientation (details TBA). Return date is Saturday, August 6.

AIRPORT TRANSFER

The program will provide round-trip bus transfers from the Munich airport to the dormitory in Innsbruck on July 2, 2016, with return on August 6. All program participants can use this transfer service, provided they book their flights in accordance with the transfer schedule, posted on the website.

RAILPASSES

For weekend travel through Europe and travel before and/or after the program, rail is the best and cheapest mode of transportation. We recommend a Eurailpass, which must be purchased in the U.S. before departure. Students may purchase a Eurailpass from ITS Tours or independently. To learn more about Eurailpasses, visit the program website. As Eurailpasses are based on the exchange rate between USD and Euros, the railpass price is not fixed until it is actually purchased.

GROUP FLIGHT

ITS Tours has arranged group flights on the SkyTeam Alliance Airlines (Delta and Air France-KLM) and Star Alliance Partners (United and Lufthansa), as well as some seats on American Airlines. The flights will depart from Atlanta or New Orleans on July 1, 2016, arriving in Munich, Germany on July 2, and return on August 6. Group seats on each airline are limited, and they are sold on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost for round-trip airfare from Atlanta to Munich is $1,895.00, and from New Orleans to Munich it is $1,995.00, if full payment is received by Monday, March 28, 2016. For full details on the group flight options and on how to make a flight reservation, please contact ITS Tours or check our program website at inst.uno.edu/austria

40 years and counting

The UNO-Innsbruck International Summer School celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2015. Almost 10,000 students have completed this program and, in one way or another, their lives have been shaped by this experience.

In 1976, the University of New Orleans initiated its flagship study abroad program in Innsbruck. Its founder, Dr. Gordon H. “Nick” Mueller, is often referred to as a visionary. He is known as a man who “thinks big,” so even for the first UNO-Innsbruck program he chartered a Pan Am flight to take 166 students to Innsbruck, and launched what was to become one of the most substantial study abroad programs of its kind in the United States.

Successes and challenges have shaped the International Summer School over the past four decades, during which it has convened yearly without interruption. The program has adjusted to changing times and student needs, but it has managed to maintain its identity and academic integrity.

“I love UNO-Innsbruck. It’s a part of me!”
William Carl Wagner
Former Division Director & Alumnus
The University of New Orleans

“Caution: This program has life-altering effects!”
Misti Elting, UNO-Innsbruck ’94
Randolph-Macon Woman’s College

“UNO-Innsbruck” is widely recognized both in New Orleans and Innsbruck. Since its initiation, this program has spawned and cultivated a series of partnerships on several levels. First and foremost, the partnership agreement between the Universities of Innsbruck and New Orleans was signed in 1983 and quickly became one of the most active transatlantic university relationships: student programs, joint symposia, publications, art exhibitions, conferences, and centers dedicated to this mutual exchange. In 1995, the mayors of Innsbruck and New Orleans signed a Sister City Agreement, and a vibrant art exchange was started.

The festive Opening Ceremony remains a highlight of the program to this day!

So many lives and careers have been touched by The International Summer School in Innsbruck, Austria, and this summer it is your turn! Join the 41st class of UNO-Innsbruckers and be prepared to have your summer of a life-time!

“This program has transformed the lives of thousands of individuals, broadening their understanding of the past and sending them in new directions for the future!”

UNO and the University of Innsbruck receive the Euro-Atlantic Culture Award for International Education

This prestigious prize was awarded to the University of New Orleans and the University of Innsbruck for “their remarkable contribution to the scientific and cultural exchange between Europe and the USA.” The European Foundation for Culture “Pro Europa” supports cooperation in the areas of art and science between the European Union and the United States. The International Summer School is the cornerstone of the long-standing friendship between UNO and the University of Innsbruck.

WEEKEND TRAVEL

Venice, Italy is a close and easy destination from Innsbruck and is visited by many of our students. Classes are scheduled from Monday to Thursday, except for the first and last week when classes are also held on Friday. Most of these long weekends are free for students’ individual travel and offer a wonderful opportunity to explore Europe.

“I am in love with exploring the world after the Innsbruck trip, and I want to see as much of it as I can. Innsbruck gave me the opportunity to see a large part of Europe and I am so grateful.”
Allison Poche
Louisiana State University

HOUSING

The International Summer School includes housing at a dormitory in Innsbruck. The facility offers furnished rooms with a private bathroom and shower. Internet access is available in all rooms. Most rooms are doubles, but single rooms are available for a fee of $550.00 (see web site for details). A full breakfast buffet is served in the dorm on class days.

“Innsbruck is the perfect place to travel from and come back to after traveling.”
Kayla Frandsen
The University of Georgia

CLASS FIELD TRIPS

Most students in The International Summer School will enjoy the opportunity to take class field trips within Innsbruck, as well as other parts of Austria and across international borders to Italy and Germany. These trips are integral to the courses and are generally free of charge to the students. We are convinced that these field trips provide some of the real highlights and exceptional experiences of The International Summer School. Students should consult the individual course descriptions provided in the online Summer Course Guide for details about required field trips, or call The International Summer School office for more information. Students are advised not to miss any required field trip(s) as this will result in academic/participation penalties.

“The biggest learning experience was during class field trips. The lessons we learned in class were solidified in this unique environment in an integrative way that you don’t always get to experience.”
Camryn Martin
The University of New Orleans

Students pay their respect to victims of the Holocaust on a class field trip to the Dachau Concentration Camp Memorial Site outside of Munich, Germany.

“Dachau was the most meaningful field trip and an experience of the history I think everyone should understand and see.”
Meg Harris
The University of Mississippi

Business classes visit the GE plant near Innsbruck and participate in Q&A with company leaders and employees.

PASSPORT & VISAS
A valid passport is required for everyone traveling to Europe. For passport fees, application instructions and forms, see the U.S. Department of State site: travel.state.gov/passport
It is strongly suggested that you apply for your passport as soon as possible, and no later than April. All foreign students requiring visas for travel in European countries must secure those visas before arrival in Europe. The Division of International Education at UNO assumes no responsibility for visas.

“'I had an amazing time traveling and learned a great deal from both classes.”
Austin Bracket
College of Charleston

MEDICAL INSURANCE
All students are covered by a comprehensive study abroad medical insurance plan, included in the program cost. This policy provides for accident, medical expenses, emergency medical and evacuation, repatriation of remains, and family assistance coverage. Extended coverage at additional cost is available. A brochure fully detailing the insurance plan will be provided to each student. The policy does not cover trip cancellation or baggage loss. Such a policy is available for purchase from ITS Tours or other providers and is strongly recommended. (See program website for details.)

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS
The University of New Orleans is committed to providing an environment where all students have the opportunity to equally participate in the academic experience, including students with disabilities. Students with disabilities have rights as determined by federal and state laws which require institutions to provide reasonable accommodations for the student’s disability in order to afford an equal opportunity to participate in UNO’s programs, courses, and activities. Persons requiring disability-related accommodations must notify the program administration at the earliest possible date so that their needs may be properly assessed and reasonably accommodated.
PAYMENT TERMS & SCHEDULE

- Please make all payments promptly. We cannot guarantee a place in the program unless all payments are made on schedule.
- A deposit of $300.00 is required with the application ($150.00 of which is non-refundable).
- The balance of the program cost is due by March 1, 2016.
- Those applying after March 1 (provided that space is available) must remit the entire program cost with the application.
- You can pay securely online or mail a check (payable to The University of New Orleans) to:

REFUND & CANCELLATION POLICY

- All monies will be refunded to students who are not accepted into The International Summer School, less the $150.00 non-refundable fee.
- $150.00 of the $300.00 deposit is fully refundable if a student withdraws from the program voluntarily by March 1, 2016.
- A cancellation fee of $650.00 will be assessed for cancellations after March 1, 2016.
- A cancellation fee of $900.00 will be assessed for cancellations after May 2, 2016.
- For cancellations made after May 2, and until 11 days before the start of the program, only those monies that can be recovered from vendors by the university will be refunded, less the $900.00 cancellation fee.
- If a student withdraws within 10 days before the commencement of the program, or during the program, NO REFUNDS WILL BE MADE, even if withdrawal from the program is due to medical reasons.
- The effective date of cancellation shall be the date that such written notice is received by the Program Director of The International Summer School at the address above or by email to innsbruck@uno.edu.
- Refund policies apply to all students regardless of date of application or circumstance.

NOTE: The participant remains ultimately responsible for the payment of all program costs regardless of any circumstances such as but not limited to the deferment of payments against the anticipated arrival of financial aid.
