Welcome to the University of New Orleans International Student Exchange Programs!

The ISEP at the University of New Orleans would like to welcome all of you to the exciting and historic city of New Orleans. We know that you are going to be studying hard over the upcoming weeks, but we hope that while you are here you will also find time to relax and take advantage of all the fun and excitement in and around our city.

The history and culture of New Orleans is rather different from that of other cities in the United States. We are known as the birthplace of jazz and we are famous for our food and our great public parties (like Mardi Gras and the Jazz & Heritage Festival). Like all American cities, we have shopping malls and fast food, but we hope that you will take some time to explore the things which make our city special.

This little guide should give you some ideas for things to do while you’re here. You can always come to the ISEP office for more information.

Also, please be sure to stay in touch with us. Come by the office anytime you need something, or just to say “hi!” Please join the Facebook group — search FB for “UNO International Exchange Programs.” This is a private group for past, present, and future UNO exchange students (incoming and outgoing). It helps to connect you with each other in a way that can really be helpful.

NEW ORLEANS ATTRACTIONS

French Quarter
The New Orleans French Quarter is one of the oldest neighborhoods in the United States. Originally laid out in 1721, today the Vieux Carré offers museums, historic homes and famous landmarks tucked away amongst quaint shops and world-renowned restaurants.

1. Jackson Square: Relax in this historic park or purchase artwork displayed along the park’s perimeter.
2. St. Louis Cathedral: built in 1849, this is the 3rd church to stand on this site (the original structure was erected in 1722). Open for viewing except during Mass.
3. French Market Produce and Flea Market: between N. Peters St. and French Market Place, near the river. Local and regional produce and specialty items, souvenirs, clothing, crafts, and thrift items.
4. Café du Monde (587-0833): 800 Decatur Street, across from Jackson Square. Beignets (a kind of doughnut with powdered sugar) and café au lait (part coffee with chicory, part hot milk) served 24 hours a day, 7 days a week “en plein air.”
5. Jean Lafitte National Park (589-2636): 419 Decatur St. You can find a wealth of information here on the history and culture of the city. Free French Quarter tours every morning at 9:30 for first 25 visitors to sign up.
6. French Quarter Walking Tours with Friends of the Cabildo (523-3939): Meet at 523 St. Ann St.. Two-hour tour conducted by licensed guides, concentrating on history and architecture. Tours at 10 am & 1:30 pm Tues.-Sun. Adults $12; students and seniors $10.

Along the River
1. Aquarium of the Americas (581-4629): At the foot of Canal Street, this is one of the top rated aquariums in the United States.
2. Entergy IMAX Theatre (581-4629): at the Aquarium of the Americas. Opens daily at 10 am with shows hourly.

Nicknames for New Orleans

“The Crescent City” — The Mississippi river forms a crescent around the city.

“Paris of the Americas” — The city is cosmopolitan, with a French flair.

“The Big Easy” — The city is known for its laid-back attitude.

“NOLA” — Simply an abbreviation for New Orleans, Louisiana, “NOLA” easily rolls off the tongue.
Attractions, continued

3. The Streetcar: Also known as a tram in Europe, this is a quaint way to wind your way through New Orleans’ most scenic areas. With newly added routes, the Streetcar runs along the Riverfront as well as up Canal Street to Mid City. Currently most streetcar routes are undergoing construction. Please visit www.norta.com for the most updated information regarding routes. Fare is $1.25 each way.

4. Canal Street Ferry: Board the ferry at the foot of Canal Street and cross to historic Algiers Point. This is a great way to see the N.O. skyline at night and catch a cool breeze off the river. Pedestrians only. The toll is $2 per one-way ride ($4 round trip). Note: make sure you check the schedule so you don’t get stranded! http://nolaferries.com/

Shops

1. Canal Place Shopping Centre (434-6002): 365 Canal Street. Many world-class shops, including Saks Fifth Avenue and Gucci, a food court, and movie theatre. Open on a limited basis.

2. Riverwalk: Entrances at the foot of Canal Street (via Spanish Plaza) and along Convention Center Blvd., next to the Hilton Hotel. Newly renovated indoor shopping, food court, and great view of the Mississippi River.

3. Royal Street Antique Stores: Shop along Royal Street in the French Quarter. Fine antiques, furniture, coins and vintage guns, rugs, silver, fine art galleries, and print shops.

4. Warehouse District: Fine art galleries, original furniture & crafts, the Children’s Museum, National World War II Museum, Ogden Museum of Southern Art, and Contemporary Arts Center are located between Magazine St. and Convention Center Boulevard, not far from Lee Circle. To get there from the French Quarter, take the Riverfront Streetcar and get off at Julia Street, or take the St. Charles streetcar and get off at Lee Circle.

5. Magazine Street: Lots of cool antique shops, boutiques, restaurants, coffee shops, etc. Take the bus from Canal Street and get off at various areas for different shopping experiences.

Riverboats

1. Natchez Steamboat (569-1401): New Orleans’ only authentic steam powered sternwheeler. Daily 2-hr harbor cruises depart from dock behind JAX Brewery at 11:30 am and 2:30 pm. Nightly Dinner & Jazz Cruise boards at 6 pm. Cruises 7-9 pm.

2. Creole Queen Paddlewheeler (445-4109): Narrated tours to site of the Battle of New Orleans, 10:30 am & 2 pm. Nightly dinner & jazz cruise boards at 7 pm, cruises 8-10 pm. Departs from Canal Street dock behind Riverwalk.

3. John James Audubon Riverboat (586-8777): Excursions between the Aquarium of the Americas and Audubon Zoo with tickets sold at both locations. One way and round trip combination packages are available.

ANDOUILLE AND CHICKEN JAMBALAYA

ingredients

- 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- 3 cups chopped onions
- 1 cup chopped bell peppers
- 3 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoons cayenne
- 1 pound andouille, chorizo, or other smoked sausage cut cross-wise into 1/4-inch slices
- 1/2 pounds boneless white and dark chicken meat, cut into 1 inch cubes
- 3 bay leaves
- 3 cups medium-grain white rice
- 6 cups water
- 1 cup chopped green onions

preparation instructions

Heat the oil in a large cast-iron Dutch oven over medium heat. Add the onions, bell peppers, 2 teaspoons of the salt and 1 teaspoon of the cayenne. Stirring often, brown the vegetables for about 20 minutes, or until they are caramelized and dark brown in color. Scrape the bottom and sides of the pot to loosen any browned particles. Add the sausage and cook, stirring often for 10 to 15 minutes, scraping the bottom and sides of the pot to loosen any browned particles. Season the chicken with the remaining 1 teaspoon salt and remaining 1/4 teaspoon cayenne. Add the chicken and the bay leaves to the pot. Brown the chicken for 8 to 10 minutes, scraping the bottom of the pot to loosen any browned particles. Add the rice and stir for 2 to 3 minutes to coat it evenly. Add the water, stir to combine, and cover. Cook over medium heat for 30 to 35 minutes, without removing cover or stirring, or until the rice is tender and the liquid has been absorbed. Remove the pot from the heat and let stand, covered for 2 to 3 minutes. Remove the bay leaves. Stir in the green onions and serve.

Yield: 10 to 12 servings
Another Emeril Favorite

SEAFOOD OKRA GUMBO

ingredients
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 2 pounds small okra, caps and tips remove, sliced 1/4-inch thick
- 2 cups chopped onions
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1 cup chopped green bell peppers
- 1/2 cup tomatoes, peeled, seeded and chopped
- Salt
- Cayenne
- 2 tablespoons chopped garlic
- 3 bay leaves
- 1/2 pound firm flesh fish, such as grouper, snapper, monkfish, etc., diced
- Essence
- 2 quarts fish stock
- 1/2 pound medium shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 1 pound peeled crawfish tails
- 1/2 pound fresh lump crabmeat, picked over for shells and cartilage
- File powder to taste
- 1/2 cup chopped green onions, green part only
- Dash of hot sauce
- 4 cups cooked long-grain white rice, warm

Preparation Instructions

In a large stock pot, over medium heat, add the oil. When the oil is hot, add the okra. Season the okra with salt and cayenne. Fry the okra, stirring constantly, for 10 to 12 minutes, or until most of the slime disappears. Add the onions, celery, peppers and tomatoes. Season with salt and cayenne. Continue cooking, stirring often for 18 to 20 minutes, or until the okra and other vegetables are soft and the slime has completely disappeared. Stir in the garlic and bay leaves. Season the diced fish with Essence. Add the fish to vegetables and cook for 2 minutes. Add the fish stock. Bring the liquid up to a boil and reduce to a simmer. Simmer for 15 minutes. Season the shrimp and crawfish with Essence. Add the seasoned seafood and crabmeat to the pan. Continue to simmer for 5 minutes. Stir in the green onions and hot sauce. Remove the bay leaves and serve over the gumbo. Yield: 6 to 8 servings

Ten Things to Do in New Orleans

1. Ride the ferry at the foot of Canal Street across the Mississippi River and back. It is $2 each way and gives you a new perspective of the city.
2. Go to the New Orleans Museum of Art in City Park; check their web site for UNO student discounts.
3. Take a ride on the St. Charles Avenue streetcar ($1.25 each way, or a transfer from the Elysian Fields bus) for a long, pleasant ride on one of the most beautiful streets in New Orleans.
4. Take a swamp tour and see the alligators up close.
5. Eat crawfish (they’re best from February through May).
6. Go to the Audubon Zoo on Magazine Street, behind Audubon Park, or even the Aquarium of the Americas and the Insectarium… all part of the Audubon Institute.
7. Go to Preservation Hall to hear great old-time jazz (726 St. Peter St. in the French Quarter). It can be hot and crowded but the music is unlike anything else you’ve ever heard!
8. Visit the Historic New Orleans Collection where it takes seven buildings to hold this electric and wondrous array of treasures from New Orleans’ colorful history (533 Royal St, Tues-Sat: 10-4:30 PM).
9. Get a New Orleans public library card The card is free when you show proof of address in New Orleans and you can check out books, videos, and CD’s. The main branch of the library is found on Loyola Avenue. There is also a nice branch called the Latter Library on St. Charles Avenue.
10. Wear a costume when you go to Mardi Gras — it’s even more fun when you are part of the show.

Legal Drinking Age in New Orleans

Despite the rumors, the legal drinking age is 21, just like the rest of the U.S. Many bars do not allow entrance to people under the age of 21. Alcohol is not allowed in campus housing apartments or rooms where there are residents under the age of 21.

Drinking and Driving

Driving under the influence of alcohol is illegal in Louisiana and the punishment can be quite severe. People arrested for driving under the influence (DUI) or driving while intoxicated (DWI) are taken straight to jail. Anyone with a blood alcohol level of .10 or above will be charged with DUI.

Behavior in Public

Exposing private areas of the body can be illegal in the U.S. (believe it or not), so showing private parts of your body can get you in trouble. The most problematic is when men have to use the bathroom and use the street instead of finding a public restroom.
Local Dictionary

red gravy – tomato sauce

lagniappe (“lan-yap”) – something extra. Locals use this constantly to refer to any bonus of any sort.

Creole vs. Cajun – Strictly defined, Creoles were the first generation born in New Orleans of immigrants from France, Spain, Haiti, or another country. More informally, Creole refers to mixed-race locals. Cajuns are the ethnic French who fled to Nova Scotia, and then migrated to southwest Louisiana. Cajuns left the Acadia region of France, and were called Acadians. Over a few hundred years, the term “Acadian” eventually turned into “Cajun.”

po-boys – Large sandwiches on a French loaf, often stuffed with fried shrimp, roast beef, or fried oysters. These were the only food that could be afforded by “poor boys” during the 1914 strike by city streetcar workers.

faubourg - neighborhood

neutral ground – what the rest of America calls the “median”, it is the divider in the middle of two sides of a street. The term neutral ground comes from Canal Street, which divided the French Quarter from the “American sector” in the 1800s.

dressed – refers to serving a sandwich with mayonnaise, lettuce, and tomato shotgun house – A popular style of house with a single row of rooms arranged in a straight line. The name comes from the theory that one could shoot a bullet from the front door to the end of the house and not hit anything but the back wall in the last room. (Testing the theory is strongly discouraged by the New Orleans Police Department and NewOrleans.com.)

“for six” – “At six o’clock”

banquette (“bank-et”) – a sidewalk

snowball – a snowcone; shaved ice with flavored syrup

Papa Noel – The Cajun Santa Claus, who comes down the Mississippi River guided by large bonfires on the shores.

vieux carre (“voo car-ray”) – Means “old square”, term refers to the French Quarter.

“He made 30” – “He turned 30 years old”

Where y’at? – means "How are you?"

Momanem – “Momma and them” aka: your family (rhymes with homonym)

making groceries – buying groceries

fais do do – a community dance held in rural Cajun dancehalls. Literally means “go to sleep” in Cajun French because children would be put to sleep before the fais do do.

roux – The basic starting mix for gumbo, soups, and other Cajun dishes. Ingredients are 1 cup all-purpose flour and ¾ cup vegetable oil. Combine the oil and flour in a skillet over a medium flame and don’t stop stirring. The roux will congeal and brown. When it’s the shade of an old penny, remove it from the flame, and allow it to cool. There’s a common saying before making a meal or making any important plans: “First, make a roux.”

crawfish – These small freshwater crustaceans are a staple of Louisiana etouffee, pie, gumbo, jambalaya, and eaten out of the shell with corn and potatoes at a “crawfish boil.” Also called mudbugs.

mudbugs – crawfish

Who Dat?—the name of a chant of support by fans of the New Orleans Saints, an American football team

y’all — meaning ‘you all’. It is actually singular. The plural for ‘y’all” would be ‘all y’all’.

zydeco - Spicy accordion-based music from the prairies of southern Louisiana. The music combines Cajun instruments with African-influenced rhythms from Creoles of color. A French Creole expression, les haricots sont pas salés (the beans aren’t salty), was in many of the early songs. Say les haricots over and over quickly, and you’ll end up saying “zydeco”.

THE PRESBYTERE: 504-568-6968, 751 Chartres St, Tues-Sun: 10-4:30

Construction on the Presbytere began in 1797, and the building was designed to match the Cabildo. Originally the residence of Capuchin monks, the building later became a courthouse (1847-1911). The beautiful mansard roof was added in 1847. Among the most popular exhibits in the Presbytere is “Mardi Gras in Louisiana”.

THE HISTORIC NEW ORLEANS COLLECTION: 504-523-4662, 533 Royal St, Tues-Sat: 10-4:30 PM

It takes seven buildings to hold this eclectic and wondrous array of treasures from New Orleans' colorful history.

PHARMACY MUSEUM: 504-565-8027, 514 Chartres St, Tues-Sat: 10-5 PM

OLD U.S. MINT: 504-568-6968, 400 Esplanade Avenue, Tues-Sun: 10-4:30 PM

Built in 1835, this beautiful museum is the only building in America to have served as both a U.S. and Confederate Mint. Located here is the stunning exhibit on New Orleans Jazz. Visitors can also find a wonderful exhibit of Newcomb pottery, the Historical Center with early French and Spanish records and more.

THE CABildo: 504-568-6968, 701 Chartres St (At Jackson Square) Tue–Sun: 10-4:30 PM

Often mentioned as the second most important American building, just after Independence Hall, the Cabildo is the site of the Louisiana Purchase Transfer and is the flagship building of the complex. It was built in 1795-99 as the seat of the Spanish municipal government in New Orleans. Look for Napoleon's death mask on the second floor and a vast array of artifacts.

HERMANN-GRIMA HOUSE: 504-525-5661, 820 St. Louis St, Mon-Fri: 10-2(by appointment only); Sat: 12-3; closed Sun & Wed.

Built in 1831 by a German Jewish immigrant, Samuel Hermann, the Hermann-Grima House is one of the most significant residences in New Orleans.

1850 HOUSE, PONTALBA BUILDING: 504-568-6968, 523 St. Ann St, Tues-Sun: 10-4:30

This wonderful residence faithfully reproduces the residence of a middle class New Orleans family in the 1800's. Here the visitor finds furnishings, clothing and art of the period. The home is part of the Pontalba buildings, thought by many to be the first apartment buildings in the U.S.

BEAUREGARD-KEYES HOUSE: 504-523-7257,
1113 Chartres St, Mon-Sat: 10-3
