THE UNO WRITING WORKSHOPS ABROAD FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

➢ When do I get my passport?
Immediately! This is sometimes the most time-consuming aspect of travel preparation. You can have your passport issued at a major post office or check with the passport office to make your appointment. http://travel.state.gov/passport/passport_1738.html

You will also need to give us a copy of the inside (photo page) of your passport for our records.
How do I choose and enroll for classes?
When you apply, you select from a list of classes listed on the form. You will select one for each section you desire, up to three sections. You will also need to select an alternate class for each section. It is up to the student to talk to his or her university and counselor to make sure the credits can be transferred for a specific class. Please note that 5000- and 6000-level course numbers are graduate sections, whereas 2000- and 4000-level are undergraduate sections.

What if the class I chose does not “make”?
Because of the limited size of our program, not all classes will have enough students to make. It’s important to choose your course early in order to give that particular class the best chance of making. If your class is not available, we will place you in your alternate choice of courses. You will receive confirmation of your courses and the corresponding syllabi prior to departure.

What about books and assignments for my classes?
Prior to your departure for the program, you will receive a list of books to order, syllabi, and instructions for any assignments or readings that need to be completed prior to arrival. You may purchase the books from your local bookstore or order online.

When do I pay for the program?
Once your initial deposit is received, you will be sent an e-mail reminder for the remainder of the payments. It is your responsibility to keep up with the schedule of payments. It is imperative that you keep up with the schedule of payments or you may be placed on a waiting list! The payment schedule is listed on our website, and on the front of this form. If you are pending financial aid, please let our office know so we can note this in your file.

You can make online payments by following the link at the top of the Program Fees & Financial Aid page: http://inst.uno.edu/writing/Pages/fees-housing.cfm

How do I book my flight?
Our office can give you advice regarding transportation, but you must book your flight on your own. Do not make non-refundable reservations until you are sure you can attend. Also, please consult with us regarding time of arrival, etc. so we can help you decide on the best venue.

Most students like to travel with others on the program. If you have friends or family who are also participating in the program, you are encouraged to book with them. Feel free to post on our Facebook page to coordinate this. You may also be able to book the same flight as one of our participating faculty members. Contact the Program Coordinator for assistance.

You can make plans online through agencies such as www.kayak.com, www.orbitz.com, www.travelocity.com, www.statravel.com and many more. Please be sure to go with a trusted site and also make sure to book the correct dates. You can also use a travel agent or frequent flyer miles. Once you have your itinerary, please email it to us so we can plan accordingly.

For the Writing Workshops in Cork 2014 you should plan to ARRIVE in Cork on June 19, preferably by early evening, in order to participate in all orientation events. (This means you will depart from the U.S. on June 18) The last day of classes is July 16, and July 17 is the last day to submit assignments for a grade. Departure should be planned for no later than 10 am on July 18. Early arrival or late departures can be arranged directly through UCC Campus Accommodations.

Please check the website for area map and instructions getting to and from campus.

What if I have other questions?
Having questions is normal. If at any time you have questions about any aspect of the program, please feel free to contact us by calling (504) 280-7345, emailing writingabroad@uno.edu, or stopping by the UNO International Center, Room 124.

Thank you very much for your application to the Writing Workshops in Cork 2015!
