

THE UNIVERSITY of
NEW ORLEANS

Writing Workshops Abroad

Cork, Ireland
June 20 - July 22, 2017

Ireland: rich in literary history and waiting for you. Join us this summer for a five-week program of study in Creative Writing, Film, Theatre, Literature, Journalism, and Communications. Interact with faculty, students, and guests from a variety of artistic disciplines—your work and your life will never be the same. Our collaborative environment allows participants to completely immerse themselves in the culture and lush surroundings of “The Emerald Isle.” Opportunities abound to explore sites both charming and historic through scheduled excursions and independent travel. Recent excursions have included Dublin, Killarney National Park, Dingle and Kerry Peninsulas, Castle Blarney, Cobh, and Kinsale.

Brunnenburg Castle
July 10 - August 5, 2017

Our unique poetry program is directly affiliated with the Ezra Pound Center for Literature at Brunnenburg Castle in Dorf Tirol, Italy. Courses are taught by Dr. John Gery of the University of New Orleans with consultation from Mary de Rachewiltz, Pound’s daughter and author of the memoir Ezra Pound, Father and Teacher. An intimate group of students live and write together on the stately grounds of Brunnenburg Castle, surrounded by a working vineyard and breathtaking views of the Italian Alps. Trace Pound’s historic footsteps with a long weekend in Venice and shorter trips to Merano, Schloss Tirol, and Hochmuth.

Cork Writers’ Retreat

Want the workshop experience without the university credit? We’ve got you covered. Join us in Cork this summer for our non-credit writers’ retreat, a two- or four-week independent writing program. Push your creative work to new levels in the refreshing beauty of Ireland. Engage with other participants, faculty, and guest authors during readings and community events. Immerse yourself in all the Irish art you can handle at the Cork Midsummer Festival, one of Ireland’s premier exhibitions of theatrical, literary, and artistic talent. Optional daily activities leave plenty of time for individual writing and exploration.

The program begins June 20 and runs through either July 7 or July 22. The cost is $2,195 for two weeks and $2,995 for the full month, and it includes housing, some meals, manuscript consultation with a literary agent, insurance, and all program activities. For more information and to apply, please visit the Cork Writers’ Retreat page on the Cork program website.
